February Sommelier Selections

French White

1401 | Domaine De Villaine Aligoté 2020 110

Issued from 17 different parcels of Aligoté Dore of an average 65 years old and the oldest vines of them being 115 years, you will find what makes the quality of our Bouzeron. The nose expresses the essence of ripe fruit, accompanied by refined notes, lightly oaked, intense and fresh thanks to the citrus fruits and with it, this sensation of smelling the “petrichor” (the smell after rain has fallen on stones). On the palate, we perceive the balance that can be found between roundness and the delicacy of the wines texture.

Les Clous Aime is made from fruit of old vines on a predominantly limestone terroir, and in its youth displays a pure mineral character. This chardonnay from these slopes of Bouzeron gives aromas of white flower, mineral and citrus. It’s a perfect complement to fish and white meats, but avoid sauces that are too spicy.

Domestic Red

2032 |Walter Scott, Cuvée Ruth Eola-Amity Hills, Willamette Valley 2021 115

The 2021 Cuvée Ruth brings elegance to the forefront, showing generous red fruit notes and layered with floral and mineral depth which balance the power that the individual sites famously achieve, giving this wine an overall polish evoked by the blending of the sites. These iconic vineyards are a blend of multiple clones of Pinot Noir and some of our oldest vines, allowing the wine to demonstrate a refined purity associated with classic Eola-Amity Hills.

1725 |Robert Mondavi Oakville 2018 125

Rich and seductive in feel, with a lovely swath of loamy-edged steeped plum and blackberry compote flavors, backed with flashes of anise and sweet bay leaf. A loamy edge extends nicely in lockstep with the fruit on the finish. Textbook Oakville Cabernet. Best from 2022 through 2034.

French Red

2396 | Domaine De Villaine, Les Montots Mercury 2020 145

Les Montots is situated on fairly steep slope with southern exposure, planted with a selection of Pinot Noir vines from Nuits-Saint-Georges chosen for their aromatic qualities and moderate yield. Les Montots is a Merceurey of its own kind, structured and vigorous, deep with a dark ruby color. The Les Montots is full of energy and fresh on the palate despite tannins which are present and thick. They frame the ripe, peppery fruit. Very beautiful nose with floral notes of black fruit.
